OPEN CALL FOR ART

Arts Every Day is proud to present its 7th installment of our annual 10X10 Exhibit. The call for submissions is now open! All artwork must be submitted either through our online form or dropped off in person at the Motor House by Monday, January 9, 2023.

This theme is intended to be a celebration of the stories, people, and places that make Baltimore unique all through the creative lens of our city's youth. Students are encouraged to explore their communities through various art forms that tell stories, change perspectives, and unite one another. The theme also invites one to consider the word "unity" in society to create discourse around diversity, relationships, and solidarity.

Art Every Day's 10x10 Exhibit connects young artists and rising arts leaders with collaborative exhibition opportunities, working alongside local curators and arts education advocates. Unity: Through History, Culture & Space sparks creative discourse in Baltimore City classrooms, encouraging students and teachers to share their own stories. Multiple entry points allow for the exploration of concepts like harmony and wholeness, or a lack thereof, into discussions surrounding Social Studies, Mathematics, Science, English Language Arts Social Emotional Learning, Dance, Theatre, Music, and Visual Art.
